1970S PALETTE

The palette of the 1970s has made its way to the bathroom. However, avoid the avocado suite. Think blues, oranges and vibrant mustards. Architect Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva's space (above) conjures images of a rising sun, while the peach tones in Broadway Bakery in Odessa (centre) by architects Lera Brumina and Artem Trigubchak produce a pleasing glow. The pedestal of the 'Eccentrico' basin by Falper (falper.it) in Reutov Design's bathroom (left; reutovdesign.ru) has been covered in mint-green concrete to match the floor. ►
